

LCRD begins basketball season

Photos by Marguerite West/Media on the Move LLC

Family and friends come out to support local kids playing basketball for the Liberty County Recreation Department.

A player with the Comets holds the ball while a player with the Generals tries to stop him from throwing it.

An Explosion player waves to the camera from the sidelines while waiting to be put in the game

The Breakers coach gets in a few minutes of practice before the game begins.
